life was so lone - ly since you went a - way. You were still in my mind, as though yes - ter - day. And I could not sleep for the C pain that I felt. So deep in the night, by my F bed - side I knelt. (SPOKEN) And Bb
F
there in the dark -ness, an an - gel ap - peared. He came to my

B♭ F side and said, "Child, do not fear. For I bring glad tid - ings, of peace, and good cheer. You need not be lone - ly. (SING) Your loved one is near." I talked to an B♭ F
C

a - n - gel. I told him I mi - ss
C
you. I want - ed to know why you had to F F7 go and leave me a - lone. He B♭
said, "Child, don't wo - r - ry. Your loved one is
C ne - ar you. She wants you to know she

F
still loves you so, and she's wait - ing for you."

My tears fell like rain - drops. They flowed down my cheeks. And Bb
F
I could not rise. I hard - ly could speak. When there came a voice, so fa - mil - iar to me, that said, "I am here.
F
You must on - ly be - leive."
(SPOKEN) My loved one was speak - ing, though I could not see. Yet
